

Scholarship Application Form

This form is important and helps the Scholarship Committee get to know the applicant. We appreciate thoughtful responses, and encourage the student to take time to best represent the candidate as a person and why he/she deserves a scholarship.

School reports/certificates/transcripts

Submit the most recent end of year reports showing your final grades and teacher comments. You may also submit the most recent interim reports (such as semester 1 reports).

The Personal statement (essay)

The written component in the process will allow expression of views on issues that the candidate is passionate about or have academic thought over. The length of the essay must be restricted to one A4 sheet, double-sided, double-spaced, 12 point font size and must be written strictly by the student himself/herself.

Supporting Documents

A maximum of three pages of additional information, certificates or testimonials will be accepted. For students applying for scholarships in the Arts or Sport, a portfolio of results, press clippings and/or video evidence may be submitted. Please clearly label all supporting application items with candidate name. These will be returned, if requested.

Teacher or Principal recommendation

A minimum one (1) but maximum two (2) recommendation is required from a current teacher or principal. There is no specific required format or length.

The Personal statement (essay)

The written component in the process will introduce the applicant and will allow him/her to express views on issues that the candidate is passionate about or have academic thought over. The length of the essay must be restricted to one A4 sheet, double-sided, double-spaced, 12 point font size and must be written strictly by the student himself/herself.

There are two required sections:

Section A: Why do you think you are a suitable candidate for the chosen type of scholarship.

Section B: Choose one (1) of the following topics and write your personal statement.

1. Is there a special person or experience that has influenced who you are today, or you want to be 'tomorrow'? How so?
2. What personal qualities have you contributed or will you contribute to GEMS World Academy (Singapore)?
3. Write about a particular challenge you have overcome? What have you learned from the experience?
